Copenhagen, June 25, N. S.

THE Advices concerning the Health of Dantzick and the neighbouring Parts, are now said to be very favourable; however this Court has not as yet thought fit to discontinue any of the Precautions taken to prevent Infection, but on the contrary are grown rather more strict in that Point, which is a Sign that they are not entirely satisfied with the late Account from that City of the Decrease of Burials and Cessation of the Distempers there, though supported by the Testimony of the Magistrates.

Dresden, June 26, N. S. The 23d Instant Baron Keyserling presented the Order of St. Catharine to the Queen, on the Part of the Czarina, which Order hitherto no Person but the Princesses of Russia have been honoured with. By Letters from Choczim, the Turkish Ambassadour, who is sent to compliment the King upon his Election to the Crown of Poland, was arrived there; the Bacha of Choczim had immediately informed the Great General of Poland thereof, who has given the necessary Orders to receive him on the Frontiers of Poland, and conduct him to Fraustadt.

Whitehall, June 25, 1737.

Whereas it has been represented to the King, That Richard Turpin did, on Wednesday the Fourth Day of May last, barbarously murder Thomas Morris, Servant to Henry Tomson, one of the Keepers of Epping Forest; and that the said Richard Turpin hath, at divers Times, committed several notorious Felonies and Robberies in and near the said Forest, and other Places near the Cities of London and Westminster; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing the said Richard Turpin to Justice, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of the Accomplices of the said Richard Turpin, who shall discover him, so that he may be apprehended and convicted of any of the said Offences. And as a further Encouragement, his Majesty is pleased to promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons who shall discover the said Criminal, so as he may be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid, to be paid upon such Conviction, over and above all other Rewards to which the said Person or Persons may otherwise be entituled.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

The said Richard Turpin was born at Thacksted, in the County of Essex, is about Thirty Years of Age, by Trade a Butcher, about Five Feet Nine Inches high, of a brown Complexion, very much marked with the Small Pox, his Cheek bones broad, his Face thinner towards the Bottom, his Visage short, pretty upright, and broad about the Shoulders.

Whereas by an Act passed the last Sessions of Parliament, it is enacted, that from and after the 24th Day of June, 1737, there shall be paid for the Use of his Majesty, &c. for every Barrel of Liquor made or to be made within the Kingdom of Great Britain for Sale, by Infusion, Fermentation, or otherwise from foreign Fruit, or Sugar, or from British Fruit or Sugar, or from Fruit or Sugar mixed with any other Ingredients or Materials whatsoever, commonly called Sweets, or called or distinguished by the Name of Made Wines, for which no Duty hath been already paid, or shall be paid on or before the said 24th Day of June, the Sum of Twelve Shillings to be paid by the Maker thereof, and so in Proportion for a greater or lesser Quantity. That from and after the said 24th Day of June, every Maker of the Liquors aforesaid, called Sweets or Made Wines, for Sale, shall, before he, she, or they begin to make such Sweets or Wines, or any of them, give Notice in Writing at the next Office of Excise, of his, her, or their Name and Place of Abode, and of all and every the Rooms and Places made Use of by him, her, or them for Making or Keeping of Sweets or Made Wines, on Pain of forfeiting for every Room or Place so made use of as aforesaid, without Notice as aforesaid, the Sum of Twenty Pounds. That all Laws heretofore made in relation to the Duties upon Sweets, shall be exercised, &c. for securing, &c. the Duty granted by this Act, and for punishing Frauds relating thereto: That no Person shall Sell such Made Wines to be drank in his, her or their House or Houses, unless such Person or Persons be first Licensed by two or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace. That no Licence shall be granted to any Person for Selling by Retail any Made Wines whatsoever, except to such Persons only who shall keep publick Victualling Houses, Inns, Coffee-Houses or Ale Houses. That nothing in this Act contained shall extend to charge with any Duty, such Wine as the Owners or Occupiers of British Vineyards shall make from the Juice of British Grapes only growing thereon. It is therefore thought proper to give this publick Notice of the said Law, that all Persons concerned may act in conformity thereto.
